Poets Against War

Creators:
Hamill, Sam

Editors:
Bennett, John M.

Other Contributors:
Tauber, Robert C. (Robert Charles)

Issue Date:
2008

Metadata
Show full item record

Publisher:
Logan Elm Press

Series/Report no.:
Ohio State University. Libraries. Logan Elm Press. Logan Elm Press Catalogue Raisonné

Abstract:
Colophon: 350 copies of this keepsake have been printed at The Ohio State University Libraries' Center for Book Arts Logan Elm Press on the occasion of the acquisition of the Sam Hamill Poetry and Translation Library and in tribute to Sam Hamill's founding of the international peace organization Poets Against War.

Description:
Print Edition: 350 copies.
Print Pages: 1 sheet
Print Illustrations: ill. consists of logo
Printing: Letterpress
Binding: Tri-fold
Paper: Fabriano Ingres
Typography: Digitally set Myriad Pro; Woodtype titling
200,000 people witness POETS AGAINST WAR. Dear Poets and Friends, Thank you so much for helping to make POETS AGAINST WAR such a wonderful event yesterday, World Poetry Day. Hosted by Caza de Poesía and Veterans for Peace, with a backdrop of Arlington West Memorial, with thousands of crosses stretching out to the ocean on one side and the With thanks to Sam Hamill and Poets Against the War, we reprint their poems here as living examples of “Poetry and the American Voice.”

Complaint and Petition.

Mr. President: On a clear cold morning I address you from a remote margin of your dominion in plain- style Yankee quatrain because. This chapbook anthology, 100 Poets Against The War, has been timed to appear on January 27, 2003, the date on which Hans Blix delivers his weapons inspections report to the United Nations. It is widely expected that this report will either act as a trigger for war, or begin the process whereby the United States of America in fact disregards the will of the UN, and makes a unilateral (give or take a few cronies) preemptive strike upon Iraq.